Subject: Paul McConkey case

I believe it was Friday when VanSantford took a Theft report from McConky. As I recall it, a large oil tank was taken from Penn Plaza. There was video of the theft and I was told McConky tracked the suspect truck to an address in Navy Yard City. VanSantford asked me to assign the case to an officer for follow up investigation. I gave the report to Joe Corey and asked him to look into it. Joe then got involved with a convoluted Fraud case and never was able to follow up on the oil tank theft.

I believe the case was then turned over to Sgt Meade for follow up. I believe I heard Meade say the suspect vehicle was no longer in Navy Yard City. I told Meade late Friday that McConkey wanted contact.

That is about All I remember.
